Foreword

Building a Culture of Communication

Education is greatly valued in Hong Kong. With the advancement of society, people become more aware of their own rights and interests, and have growing expectation that schools should provide quality education to nurture future generations. They place a premium on the quality of management and services that schools provide. Key stakeholders, especially parents, consider the holistic development of students imperative. They often make inquiries and provide feedback and suggestions regarding the performance of schools. It is therefore vital for schools to maintain good communication with their stakeholders. In addition to providing effective communication channels, schools should also encourage parents, students and staff to make good use of them to express their views and feelings, so as to build up mutual trust and confidence and avoid any unnecessary misunderstanding.

Handling Complaints in a Positive Manner

Striving for excellence and efficiency, and promoting accountability and transparency, are values that our society today upholds. Notwithstanding the availability of established systems and channels in schools for public inquiry, consultation and communication, some people would still lodge complaints with schools for one reason or another. Schools should handle complaints positively, with patience and understanding, and provide prompt responses within an appropriate time frame. In fact, constructive criticisms and reasonable complaints should be valued as they may help schools improve. In addition to adopting an open attitude to diverging views, schools should also review their existing policies, procedures and measures for the continuous improvement of their administration. Should misunderstanding or insufficient communication be identified as the actual cause of any complaints, schools should undertake to explain to the complainant(s) fully and sincerely to remove their doubts. We understand that sometimes schools may find their manpower greatly sapped or their service adversely affected as a result of their efforts and time devoted to the handling of unreasonable behaviour of certain complainant(s). To ensure that school operation would not be affected, we recommend that schools develop appropriate policies and measures to deal with such kind of unreasonable behaviour.

Formulating a School-based Mechanism

In order to handle complaints more speedily and effectively, and to respond to the reasonable demands from complainants, schools should establish or enhance their school-based mechanism and procedures according to their own situations and needs. A sound school-based complaint handling mechanism can help schools get to the root of the issues and take appropriate follow-up actions, such as introducing new measures or improving the existing policies and practices to prevent similar problems from recurring. Schools should consult their stakeholders to ensure that the relevant mechanism and procedures are transparent and acceptable for effective implementation.

To assist schools in setting up their school-based mechanism and procedures for handling complaints from the public, the Education Bureau (EDB) has published the Guidelines for Handling School Complaints (Guidelines), which sets out the principles, policies and procedures for handling school complaints. With reference to the Guidelines, schools may review their own policies and measures with a view to establishing a mechanism and a set of procedures for complaint handling that will suit the need of both the school and its stakeholders.

Enhancing Effectiveness of Governance

The EDB and the school sector share the common vision of strengthening school governance and providing quality education service. A healthy school governance culture is conducive to reducing misunderstandings and complaints. To enhance the efficiency of administrative management in schools and to reduce the administrative workload of teachers, the EDB launched a “Pilot Project on Strengthening Schools’ Administration Management” in some public sector schools in the 2012/13 school year. At the same time, the EDB launched the “Pilot Project on Enhancement of Complaint Management in Schools” (Pilot Project) from the 2012/13 to 2014/15 school year to help schools establish a fair, just and open system for managing complaints and try out the Enhanced School Complaint Management Arrangements (Enhanced Arrangements). In view of the positive evaluation results of the Pilot Project, the EDB announced the full implementation of the Enhanced Arrangements in all public sector and DSS schools by 1 September 2017. All non-pilot schools may base on their own situation opt to implement the Enhanced Arrangements on 1 September 2016, 1 January 2017 or 1 September 2017.

A good communication culture and a sound complaint management system are prerequisites for quality service and governance in schools. We encourage schools to strengthen communication and maintain a close partnership with their stakeholders. We also hope that they will enhance their governance and credibility through the introduction of a school-based mechanism and procedures for the effective handling of public complaints.

Chapter I Scope of Application

1.1 The principles, procedures and arrangements proposed in the Guidelines are designed to help schools handle complaints more effectively. They are applicable to the handling of the following types of complaints lodged by parents, students or the public through various means, including post, fax, email, phone or in person:

(i) Complaints about the daily operation and internal affairs of schools

- ◆ In the spirit of school-based management, the Education Ordinance has entrusted the Incorporated Management Committees¹ (IMCs) with the power and responsibility to manage schools. Schools should, therefore, collaborate closely with their sponsoring bodies to develop their school-based mechanism and procedures for handling school affairs, including complaints related to schools. A complainant should lodge his/her complaint directly to the school for effective handling if it concerns the daily operation and internal affairs of the school (see Appendix I for relevant examples).
- ◆ Schools should handle complaints about daily operation and internal affairs in accordance with the Education Ordinance, Education Regulations, Codes of Aid, relevant circulars, guidelines and codes of practice to ensure compliance with the relevant requirements.
- ◆ Upon receipt of any complaints about the daily operation and internal affairs of a school from members of the public or via other organisations (such as the Chief Executive's Office, Legislative Council, Equal Opportunities Commission (the EOC), District Council, Offices of Councillors or other government departments), the EDB will seek the complainant's consent to refer the complaint to the relevant school for investigation and direct response. If the complainant does not consent to the referral, the EDB will not investigate the complaint. However, if the complaint involves any serious incident or school maladministration, even without the complainant's consent, the EDB may, without disclosing any personal information, allow the relevant school access to the content of the complaint so that the school could make improvements to its administration system.
- ◆ The EDB may conduct direct investigation of any complaints under special circumstances, e.g. suspected breaches of the Education Ordinance, Education Regulations or Codes of Aid, non-compliance with the requirements stipulated in the relevant circulars, guidelines and codes of practice, student safety being endangered, school operation being seriously impeded, maladministration of the IMCs or serious mismanagement by the school.

¹ For DSS and aided schools with IMCs not yet established, IMCs refers to School Management Committees (SMCs).

- ◆ To ensure compliance with respective requirements, schools should at the same time refer to the relevant circulars, guidelines and codes of practice when handling complaints of different nature or complaints related to legislations other than Education Ordinance, such as:
 - Complaints about child abuse: EDB Circular No. 1/2016 “Handling Child Abuse and Domestic Violence Cases”
 - Complaints about disability discrimination: EDB Circular No. 14/2001 “Commencement of the Code of Practice on Education”; and “Disability Discrimination Ordinance Code of Practice on Education” issued by the EOC
 - Complaints about equal opportunities: EDB Circular No. 33/2003 “The Principle of Equal Opportunities”
 - Complaints about gender discrimination and sexual harassment: EDB Circular No. 2/2009 “Amendment to the Sex Discrimination Ordinance (Cap. 480)” and “Questions and Answers on Preventing Sexual Harassment in Schools” issued by the EOC
 - Complaints about race discrimination: EDB Circular No. 25/2008 “Race Discrimination Ordinance” and booklet on “Racial Equality and School Uniform” issued by the EOC
 - Complaints about procurement of services and goods (such as school bus service, provision of meal boxes, etc.): EDB Circular No. 4/2013 “Procurement Procedures in Aided Schools”, EDB Circular No. 10/2016 “Trading Operations in Schools”, and “Corruption Prevention Best Practice: Governance and Internal Control in Schools” issued by the Independent Commission against Corruption (ICAC)
 - Complaints about acceptance of advantages and donations: EDB Circular No. 14/2003 “Acceptance of Advantages and Donations by Schools and their Staff”

(ii) Complaints about the Education Ordinance, education policies and services provided by the EDB

- ◆ The EDB is responsible for formulating education policies, enforcing the Education Ordinance and providing education services. If a complaint falls into any of the following categories, it should be lodged to the EDB for direct handling, even though the case may have taken place in the school:
 - Complaints about education policies (e.g. class structure and class size);
 - Complaints about alleged contravention of the Education Ordinance, (e.g. in relation to corporal punishment, unregistered teacher) or contravention of the Codes of Aid (e.g. exorbitant charges, expulsion of students); and

- Complaints about services directly provided by the EDB (e.g. school place allocation, services provided by the Regional Education Offices).
- ◆ The EDB will also draw reference from relevant internal guidelines in handling the above complaints.

1.2 The Guidelines are not applicable to handling of the following types of complaints:

- ◆ Complaints related to ongoing legal proceedings;
- ◆ Complaints under the jurisdiction of other organisations/government departments;
- ◆ Complaints governed by other ordinances or statutory regulations such as complaints against corruption, fraud or theft;
- ◆ Complaints lodged by school staff (if a school receives any such complaints, it should handle them in accordance with the specifications of the school-based or the sponsoring body's mechanism and guidelines for staff complaints [if applicable]; if the EDB receives such complaints, it will handle them in accordance with the current procedures and reply to the complainant direct.)

If the complaints fall into the categories specified in paragraph 1.1 (i) above, schools should refer to the relevant circulars, guidelines and codes of practice in handling such complaints.

1.3 In general, schools need not handle the following types of complaints:

(i) Anonymous complaints

- ◆ Whether the complaint is made in written form or in person, the complainant should provide his/her name, correspondence/e-mail address and/or contact phone number. If in doubt, the school may request the complainant to show his/her identity documents. Should the complainant fail or refuse to provide these personal details, thus rendering it impossible for the school to investigate the complaint and reply in writing, the complaint will be deemed anonymous and the school may not handle it.
- ◆ However, under special circumstances (e.g. when there is sufficient evidence or when the case is serious or urgent), the middle or senior management of the school may decide whether to follow up with an anonymous complaint, such as treating it as an internal reference, informing the subject of the complaint about the case, or taking appropriate remedial and improvement measures. If follow-up actions are considered unnecessary, the school should briefly state the reasons and put on file for record.

(ii) Complaints not made by the person concerned

- ♦ Generally speaking, the person concerned should lodge the complaint by himself/herself. Anyone who seeks to file a complaint on behalf of the person concerned has to obtain his/her prior written consent. If the case involves a student (or a minor, or an intellectually disabled person), then his/her parents/guardian, or the person authorised by the parents/guardian, may lodge a complaint on his/her behalf.
- ♦ If a complaint is lodged by more than one person on behalf of the person concerned, the school may require the person concerned to appoint one of them as the contact person.
- ♦ Sometimes a complaint is lodged on behalf of the person concerned or referred by other organisations/groups such as Legislative councillors, district councillors, trade unions or the media. Since there is no current legislation which empowers any organisation/group to complain on behalf of someone else, schools/sponsoring bodies may stipulate in their school-based mechanism whether they would accept such kind of complaint. If, however, the organisation/group has obtained prior written authorisation from the person concerned, schools should handle the complaint in accordance with their prescribed procedures.

(iii) Complaints involving incidents that happened more than one year

- ♦ Normally, complaints related to the daily operation of schools should be lodged within the same school year. If the incident involved had happened more than one year, the environment might have changed or evidence might have disappeared, or the complainant/subject of the complaint might have already left his/her post or the school. The school will not be able to investigate the complaint because of the difficulty in collecting evidence. To provide greater flexibility, the one-year limit within which a complaint may be lodged should be one calendar year from the occurrence of the incident involved.
- ♦ Even though the complaint is filed after the incident had taken place more than one year, the school may decide to conduct an investigation under special circumstances, e.g. when there is sufficient evidence, or when the nature of the complaint is serious and urgent.

(iv) Complaints with insufficient information

Schools may require the complainant to provide concrete information regarding a case. If the complainant fails to provide sufficient information to allow investigation to proceed, schools may not handle the complaint concerned.

Chapter II Guiding Principles for Handling Complaints

2.1 In handling school-related complaints made by parents, students or the public, schools should refer to the following guiding principles:

Principle I: Handling of complaints by the appropriate party/parties

2.2 A complaint should be directly handled by the organisation which is responsible for making the policies or providing the relevant services, or manages the persons/matters being complained. In this way, it can better understand and effectively address the concerns of the complainant. Accordingly, schools should handle those complaints relating to their daily operation and internal affairs, and the EDB should handle those complaints concerning the Education Ordinance, education policies and services. Complaints related to suspected breaches of other legislations of Hong Kong should be lodged to and handled by the relevant law enforcement agencies (e.g. the ICAC, Hong Kong Police Force). If the complaints fall into the categories specified in paragraph 1.1 (i) above, schools should refer to the relevant circulars, guidelines and codes of practice in handling such complaints.

2.3 If a complaint involves both school(s) and the EDB, it should be handled by the particular school(s) and related division(s)/section(s) of the EDB.

Principle II: Timely and efficient handling

2.4 Schools should handle and respond to all verbal or written inquiries, opinions or complaints as soon as possible to prevent any uninviting situation from worsening. Upon receipt of an inquiry/a complaint, the frontline staff should either directly handle it or immediately refer it to the designated staff/task force for action. If the responsible staff cannot resolve the problem, they should seek help from their seniors.

2.5 If an incident is referred or reported to the school(s) by the media, the school(s) should adopt the following measures:

- ♦ appoint a spokesman (e.g. the vice-principal) to handle inquiries from the public/the media so as to avoid giving confusing messages.
- ♦ provide appropriate responses or clarification to the public as soon as possible (within one or two days), including information about actions taken or preliminary investigation results, and ensure that the information provided is clear, accurate and in line with requirements under the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance.

- ♦ inform all teaching staff, students and parents of the progress of the case as far as possible; observe whether students and staff have been emotionally affected by the incident; and provide them with appropriate counselling where necessary.

Principle III: Clear and transparent mechanism

2.6 Schools should, in collaboration with their sponsoring bodies, set up a clear and effective school-based mechanism as well as procedures for speedy and proper handling of inquiries and complaints. They should consult teachers and parents to ensure that the relevant procedures are accepted by all stakeholders.

2.7 Schools should prepare guidelines for stakeholders on the relevant policies, procedures and responsible staff for handling complaints. They may make parents and staff fully aware of the details of the procedures through different channels, e.g. school websites, circulars, student handbooks, staff meetings, parent-teacher meetings, seminars and school events.

2.8 To facilitate smooth implementation of the school-based mechanism, schools should ensure that all staff responsible for handling inquiries and complaints understand and comply with the relevant policies and guideline. To enhance mutual understanding and strengthen home-school co-operation, schools should draw up strategies for regular communication with parents through different channels, e.g. briefings/information folders for new students and their parents, circulars issued at the beginning of each school year, etc. to inform them of the policies and procedures of complaint handling in schools.

2.9 Schools should regularly review their complaint handling policies and guidelines by consulting its staff and parents, and revise the handling procedures whenever necessary.

Principle IV: Fair and impartial handling

2.10 Schools should approach complaints positively and treat the complainants and the subjects of the complaints fairly. Schools should ensure that sufficient appeal channels are provided and consider inviting independent persons to participate in the complaint/appeal handling process, if necessary.

2.11 Before an investigation begins or where appropriate, the designated staff and related individuals should declare interests. If there is any conflict of interest, the persons concerned should not be involved in handling the case or have access to information relating to it.

2.12 To avoid conflict of interest, any staff member who is the subject of the complaint should not be involved in handling the case, supervising the investigation, or signing and issuing letters to the complainant.

2.13 Schools should see to it that the rights of the complainants or other persons involved in the complaint are being protected and that their future communication and contact with the school would not be affected.

Chapter III Procedures for Handling Complaints

Interpretation of Complaints

3.1 To avoid confusion in the handling process, the frontline staff of schools should carefully differentiate between concerns and complaints. A concern refers to the inquiry or opinion expressed by the stakeholders for the interests of themselves, their children or the school, with a view to changing or improving the existing situation. A complaint is an expression of disappointment, dissatisfaction or grievance expressed by the complainant. They may demand the school to rectify its mistakes, take disciplinary action against the suspected offenders, or resolve the issue(s) raised in the complaint. The responsible staff should avoid mixing up concerns with complaints in order to decide the appropriate procedures to handle them.

3.2 In general, unless the person concerned insists on making a formal complaint, the responsible staff can promptly provide assistance or help resolve his/her problem by following the informal complaint handling procedures. Please refer to Diagram 1 for the flowchart of complaint handling procedures in schools.

Diagram 1: Flowchart of School Complaint Handling Procedures

Informal Complaint Handling Procedures

Immediate/prompt handling

3.3 If schools handle inquiries or complaints efficiently and appropriately, they will manage not only to remove misunderstandings and forestall crises, but also enhance their own image. Schools may consider adopting the following arrangements:

- ♦ If the school receives an inquiry, opinion or informal complaint from the public, whether verbal or written, the frontline staff should clearly distinguish its nature and take appropriate action. In general, if the case does not require an investigation involving evidence collection, or the person concerned does not request a formal written reply, the frontline staff may handle the matter following the informal complaint handling procedures of the school.
- ♦ The frontline staff should listen to the concerns of the inquirer/complainant with care and understanding. If the incident is not serious, they should provide whatever assistance or information required or promptly respond to the concerns raised by the inquirer/complainant and help resolve the problems involved.
- ♦ If necessary, the school staff in charge of the relevant issue should have direct talks or interviews with the person(s) concerned to explain the schools' stance and remove any misunderstanding, misgivings or worries of them.
- ♦ The school may, according to its own situation, set a time limit for an initial response (e.g. within two days).
- ♦ If necessary, the frontline staff should refer the case to a designated staff or a senior officer for prompt follow up actions and resolutions. The principal may decide whether to take up the handling of the case, depending on the situation of the school and the nature of the case.

Replying to complaints

3.4 For verbal inquiries/opinions/complaints handled by the informal complaint handling procedures, oral replies will suffice and written replies are normally not required. For opinions/complaints which are presented in written form or if the school wishes to make clear its stance or provide necessary details, the responsible staff may decide whether a simple written reply to the person(s) concerned/complainant is appropriate.

Complaint records

3.5 Cases handled by the informal complaint handling procedures normally need not be documented in formal written records. If an inquiry/complaint has been answered or resolved instantly, it is suggested that the designated staff or the principal may record the key points in a log book for future reference. A sample is provided in Appendix II.

Appropriate follow-up

3.6 Schools should review whether the policies or procedures regarding complaints have been properly followed and suggest appropriate measures to improve the handling of similar cases or prevent similar cases from recurring. If necessary, the responsible staff may brief the person(s) concerned on the follow-up actions that the school has adopted and the results that follow.

Formal Complaint Investigation Procedures

Arrangements for the investigation and appeal stages

3.7 If the school has made its best efforts to resolve the problem through the informal complaint handling procedures but the complainant still does not accept the school's response or the problem remains unresolved, the following formal complaint investigation procedures (including an appeal mechanism) should be initiated:

(i) Investigation stage

If schools receive any formal complaints (including those referred by the EDB or other organisations), they should be handled according to the following procedures:

- ♦ in accordance with the school-based mechanism, assign appropriate staff to investigate the complaint and reply to the complainant;
- ♦ acknowledge receipt of the complaint, seek the complainant's consent to obtain his/her personal data and information relating to the complaint, and inform him/her of the name, post title and phone number of the staff responsible for handling the case for contact purposes. Samples of Acknowledgement Letters are provided in Appendixes III and IV;
- ♦ if necessary, contact the complainant and other persons involved or arrange meetings with them in order to have a better grasp of the situation or request them to provide relevant information;
- ♦ handle the complaint as quickly as possible (It is suggested that schools complete their investigation within two months after receiving the complaint.), and send a written reply to inform the complainant of the investigation result;
- ♦ if the complainant accepts the investigation result, conclude the case officially; and
- ♦ if the complainant does not accept the investigation result or the way the school handled the complaint, and is able to provide new evidence or sufficient justification, he/she may lodge an appeal in writing against the school's decision within 14 days from the date of its reply.

(ii) Appeal stage

The school should adopt the following procedures with appeal cases:

- ♦ in accordance with the school-based mechanism, assign appropriate staff of a higher rank than those responsible for the investigation stage, or staff from a different section, to handle the appeal and reply to the complainant;
- ♦ handle and resolve the appeal as quickly as possible (It is suggested that schools complete their investigation within two months after receiving the request for appeal.), and send a written reply to inform the complainant of the appeal result;
- ♦ if the complainant accepts the appeal result, conclude the case officially;
- ♦ if the complainant does not accept the appeal result or the way the school handled the appeal, the school should cautiously review the appeal process to ensure that proper procedures have been followed.
- ♦ if the complainant raises other new allegations, the schools should handle them separately in order to avoid mixing up the old complaints with the new ones.

Resolving conflict through mediation

3.8 When handling complaints, schools may, having regard to the nature of individual cases, consider whether it is appropriate to adopt different means to resolve conflicts quickly. This includes seeking mediation service from a mediator, or inviting independent persons/professionals to provide impartial views to assist the persons concerned (including the complainants and the persons/organisations being complained against).

Responding to complaints/appeals

3.9 If the complaint or appeal is in written form, schools should respond with a written reply. If the complaint is made verbally, the responsible staff may decide whether to respond orally or in writing. If the case is referred by the EDB/other organisation(s), a copy of the written reply should be forwarded to them for reference.

3.10 Generally speaking, the time limit for replying to a complaint/appeal should start from the date on which it is received or when the complainant agrees to let the school have access to his/her personal data. If the information submitted is incomplete, the time limit should start from the date on which the school receives from the complainant the necessary information. If a reply cannot be given within the specified period, the school should explain to the complainant in writing why a longer handling time is needed.

Complaint/appeal records

3.11 Schools should keep a clear record of cases handled by the formal complaint investigation procedures. A sample complaint record is given in Appendix V. Schools should establish a complaint record management system to store relevant information (including correspondences, investigation reports and interview records). In addition, schools should keep statistics of complaints and appeals lodged through either the informal or formal handling procedures for future reference.

Appropriate follow-up

3.12 At the end of the investigation/appeal stage, schools should review whether the complaint handling policies and procedures are appropriate, and suggest proper measures to improve the method of handling and to prevent similar incidents from recurring. The staff in charge should inform the person(s) concerned of the school's follow-up actions and outcome of the review.

Chapter IV Arrangements for Handling Complaints

Designated staff

4.1 Taking into account the nature of the complaint, its scope and the people involved, schools may assign a designated staff or set up a task force to handle the complaint with reference to the following arrangements:

- ♦ Staff members who are responsible for the appeal stage should be different from those responsible for the investigation stage. In principle, the staff dealing with the appeal should be of a higher rank than those responsible for the investigation. If this is not practicable, schools should make other arrangements, such as appointing staff from another department, to ensure fair handling.
- ♦ Where necessary, schools/sponsoring bodies may establish a task force to handle special complaint cases. Depending on the situation, the task force may include members of the IMC and representatives from the school sponsoring bodies. To enhance credibility, the school may invite independent persons such as social workers, lawyers, psychologists, and parents or teachers not involved in the case to join the task force to provide professional advice and support.
- ♦ The appointed staff should be proactive in communicating with the inquirers/complainants, and prompt in providing responses as well as the information they need. Schools should also ensure that frontline/designated staff have proper authorisation and clearly understand their roles and responsibilities.
- ♦ Concerning the deployment of staff for handling complaints at different stages, schools may refer to the examples in the table below:

Targets involved	Example	Investigation stage	Appeal stage
Teaching and school staff	1	Senior teacher	Vice Principal
	2	Vice Principal	Principal
	3	Principal	Supervisor
Principal	1	Supervisor	Designated staff of school sponsoring body [#]
	2	IMC Investigation Task Force*	Supervisor / IMC Appeal Task Force*
Supervisor / IMC		Designated staff of school sponsoring body [#] / Task force	Designated staff of school-sponsoring body [#] / Task force [#] Designated staff could be the staff or the person in charge of the education office of the school sponsoring body.

* If a complaint involves the Principal, the IMC investigation/appeal task force may include independent persons/managers.

Confidentiality

4.2 All contents and information of complaints should be kept strictly confidential and restricted to internal reference or reference by relevant persons only.

4.3 When schools need to collect personal data during the handling process or when they receive requests for the disclosure of data/records in respect of the complaint case, they should observe the regulations and recommendations laid down in the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance. This includes clearly stating the purpose and the form of collection of personal data, and that the data will only be used for handling the complaint or appeal cases. Schools may refer to the relevant provisions in the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (Cap. 486) and on the webpage of the Office of the Privacy Commissioner for Personal Data at (<http://www.pcpd.org.hk/>).

4.4 Schools should adopt appropriate security measures to protect personal data and privacy, such as keeping the data in safe places (e.g. cabinets under lock and key). Computer data should be protected by passwords. Use of portable data storage devices should be tightly controlled. Where necessary, encrypted portable data storage devices should be used.

4.5 Schools should establish procedures to ensure that only authorised persons are allowed access to information relating to the case. The responsible persons should not disclose or discuss in public any contents or information relating to the case without authorisation.

4.6 Schools can incorporate the arrangements for interviews or meetings with relevant parties into the school-based complaint handling mechanism. To avoid misunderstanding, schools should:

- ♦ state clearly whether the person(s) concerned can be accompanied by others (e.g. relatives, legal representatives) during the interview/meeting and reiterate this stance before the interview/meeting starts;
- ♦ indicate before the interview/meeting starts whether audio/video recording is prohibited or whether the consent of all attendees must be obtained if the session is to be audio/video recorded. This stance should be reiterated before the end of the interview/meeting; and
- ♦ remind the complainant during the interview/meeting that both parties should observe and comply with the Data Protection Principles stated in Schedule 1 of the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (Cap. 486) and be cautious of any unauthorized disclosure of personal data or other information of a third party.

Follow-up and evaluation

4.7 Schools should conduct a comprehensive review on the strategies, process and steps they have taken in handling complaints in order to benefit from past experiences, improve their way of handling, and avoid similar cases from recurring.

4.8 Schools should take appropriate follow-up measures to improve their services or revise relevant policies for enhancement of professional standards of their services.

4.9 Schools should regularly review their own complaint handling policies and report to the IMCs by providing, for example, relevant data concerning complaint/appeal cases, and suggest, if necessary, improvement measures to enhance their school-based complaint handling mechanism and procedures.

Support and training

4.10 Schools should provide appropriate training to assist staff to effectively handle inquiries/complaints, e.g. providing training programmes on communication, negotiation and mediation skills, or arranging experience sharing sessions for frontline/designated staff to enhance their capability in handling complaints and resolving conflicts.

4.11 To enhance the knowledge and skills of school staff (including principals, teachers, administrative and frontline staff) in the prevention and handling of complaints, the EDB will organise relevant training programmes. Schools may visit the website of the EDB's Training Calendar System and encourage staff to attend relevant courses.

Chapter V Review of Complaints

5.1 Most school-related complaints can be settled through the informal and formal complaint handling procedures. However, some complaints may remain unresolved after the investigation and appeal stages. Complainants or relevant organisations (including schools/the EDB) may request the “Review Board on School Complaints” (Review Board) to review these cases under the following circumstances:

- ♦ The complainant provides substantial grounds or new evidence to show that the school/EDB has handled the case improperly.
- ♦ The complaint has been properly dealt with through established procedures by the school/EDB but the complainant refuses to accept the investigation result and continues to complain.

(Note: The independent review arrangement will only be applicable to those schools which have implemented “Enhanced School Complaint Management Arrangements”. The complaints seeking review should have gone through the investigation and appeal procedures recommended in the Guidelines.)

Membership of the Review Board

5.2 The EDB has set up a Panel of Review Boards on School Complaints (the Panel). Its members are independent persons from the education and other sectors appointed by the Permanent Secretary for Education (PS(Ed)). The Panel comprises a Chairperson, a Deputy Chairperson and not less than ten members. The tenure of members is two years.

5.3 Where necessary, the Panel may set up several Review Boards to review different complaint cases. Each Review Board is composed of the following members:

- (i) The Chairperson/Deputy Chairperson of the Panel; and
- (ii) Two other members appointed by rotation from the Panel.

If necessary, the Review Board may invite up to two non-members (such as school staff, representatives of the EDB or professionals) to sit on the Board to provide information and/or advices on the case.

5.4 Members of the Review Board should declare interests. Persons who have any conflict of interest with the organisations and/or persons relating to the case under review are obliged to refrain from participating in the review.

Functions and powers of the Review Board

5.5 The Review Board is responsible for reviewing school-related complaint cases that have been handled by schools or the EDB through the investigation and appeal stages. The review results and recommendations will be submitted to the PS(Ed) for consideration.

Review procedures

5.6 Please see Diagram 2 for the review procedures.

Diagram 2: Review Stage

5.7 Schools should inform complainants in their reply after the appeal that if they do not accept the result of their appeal or the way the appeal has been handled, they may apply in writing to the EDB for a review within 14 days from the date of the school's reply. In requesting a review, the complainant should state explicitly in the application the reasons for his/her discontent (e.g. the case has not been handled according to proper procedures or the investigation result is prejudiced) and provide substantial justifications or new evidence. The EDB will then forward the case to the Panel to decide whether a review should be conducted.

5.8 If the review application is accepted, the Panel will set up a Review Board to handle it. If the application is unsuccessful, the Review Board Secretariat will inform the applicant/relevant organisation in writing of the reasons for refusal.

5.9 The person who requests a review is required to sign a letter of consent, authorising the Review Board to forward information regarding the complaint to the school/school sponsoring body and/or other relevant organisation(s)/person(s). The Review Board also has the right to obtain information related to the complaint/review from the complainant, the school/school sponsoring body and/or other relevant organisation(s)/ person(s).

5.10 The review process mainly involves examination of investigation reports and related documents. Taking into account the subject matter and nature of the case, the Panel may:

- ♦ scrutinise the information provided by the complainant, subject of the complaint, school/school sponsoring body and/or the EDB, as well as the files and records associated with the case;
- ♦ require the complainant, subject of the complaint, school/school sponsoring body and/or the EDB to clarify information and/or provide new evidence;
- ♦ meet with the complainant, the subject of the complaint and/or other persons concerned respectively to collect further information.; and
- ♦ invite the complainant, subject of the complaint, representative(s) of the school/school sponsoring body, and/or representative(s) of the EDB to attend case meetings.

5.11 To protect personal privacy, the Review Board/EDB may not disclose to anyone any personal information related to the complaint without the consent of the relevant parties (including the complainant, subject of the complaint, and/or the school/school sponsoring body).

5.12 If the Review Board wishes to interview specific persons or convene a meeting on the case, it will make the following arrangements:

- ♦ The persons to be present at the interview or case meeting must be involved in the complaint and have obtained the approval of attendance from the Chairperson of the Review Board.
- ♦ During the interview or case meeting, the complainant is not allowed to question the subject of the complaint or other witnesses, and vice versa.
- ♦ Audio/video recording is prohibited during the interview or case meeting.

Result of review

5.13 The Review Board will examine whether the case has been handled properly according to the complaint handling procedures and whether the result of investigation by relevant party is fair and reasonable. It will then make recommendations on whether to close the case, settle the disputes through mediation, implement follow-up/remedial measures, or conduct a re-investigation. The review results and recommendations will be submitted to the PS(Ed) for consideration.

5.14 The EDB will draw a final conclusion with reference to the review result and recommendations of the Review Board. The relevant person(s)/organisation(s) will be informed in writing of the outcome within three months after receipt of the request for review. If the EDB accepts closure of the case as recommended by the Review Board, the EDB and the school will cease to handle the complaint. If the persons/organisations requesting the review consider the result unacceptable, they may further appeal via other channels.

5.15 If the Review Board recommends that the case be re-investigated by the school/EDB, the school/EDB should assign staff at least one rank higher than those who handled the case previously to conduct the re-investigation. The re-investigation should be completed within two months and the result submitted in writing to the Review Board. Upon the Board's endorsement, the school/EDB should issue a written reply to the complainant and copy it to the Board. If the school/EDB cannot complete the investigation within two months, it should notify the complainant in writing of the reasons and the time needed for a definite reply.

Chapter VI Handling of Unreasonable Behaviour

6.1 Appropriate communication and mediation are conducive to removing misunderstanding and enhancing mutual trust. Under general circumstances, schools should not put any restrictions on complainants making contact with the school. However, sometimes certain unreasonable behaviour of complainants may have a negative impact on schools, e.g. draining a considerable amount of the schools' human resources, interrupting their operations or services, as well as threatening the safety of staff and other stakeholders. Schools may therefore develop appropriate policies and measures to handle this kind of unreasonable behaviour to ensure that their operation would not be affected.

Definition of unreasonable behaviour

6.2 Complainants' unreasonable behaviour can generally be classified into the following three types:

- (i) Unreasonable attitude or behaviour, such as:
 - ◆ Acts of violence or intimidation
 - ◆ Making complaints with abusive language or in an insulting and discriminatory tone
 - ◆ Providing false data or deliberately concealing facts
- (ii) Unreasonable demands, such as:
 - ◆ Requesting a huge amount of information or demanding special treatment
 - ◆ Making telephone calls incessantly to ask for a dialogue or an interview, or to command a certain staff member to reply
 - ◆ Commanding a certain staff member to meet at a specific time and place
- (iii) Unreasonable persistent complaints, such as:
 - ◆ Insisting on rejecting the explanations and findings of the school/EDB, and/or requiring the school/EDB to discipline certain person(s), even after appropriate investigation procedures have been taken
 - ◆ In respect of the same case, repeatedly making the same complaints or presenting similar justifications as before without providing any new evidence
 - ◆ In respect of the same case, persistently bringing in new allegations or new complaint targets, but failing to present concrete evidence
 - ◆ Interpreting things in an unreasonable or irrational manner, or wrangling over trivial details

Formulating school-based policy

6.3 Schools may consider instituting appropriate policies and measures to deal with unreasonable behaviour of complainants:

- ♦ Schools should designate suitable staff members to ascertain whether a complainant's behaviour is reasonable, and decide what measures should be taken. Generally speaking, the principal can make such decisions. However, if the complaint is lodged against the principal, such decisions should be made by the school supervisor or the IMC.
- ♦ Schools should integrate their policies regarding unreasonable behaviour of complainants into the school-based complaint handling mechanism and consult stakeholders' views.
- ♦ All stakeholders should be informed of the school's policy regarding unreasonable behaviour of complainants.

Handling of unreasonable behaviours

6.4 While developing policies and measures to deal with unreasonable behaviour of complainants, schools may consider the following suggestions:

(i) Unreasonable attitude or behaviour

- ♦ Any unreasonable attitude or behaviour, including acts of violence, intimidation, and abusive/offensive conduct or language, whether performed face-to-face, by phone, or in writing are unacceptable. The staff member handling the complaint should convey this message clearly to the complainant and demand that he/she stop acting in such a way. If the complainant refuses to comply after the warning, the staff member may terminate the meeting or conversation with him/her.
- ♦ Schools should develop contingency measures and guidelines to remind staff responsible for handling complaints to stay alert and take suitable action to protect their own safety. Schools should empower the staff member to make decision, depending on the situation, on whether to terminate the interview or dialogue with the complainant and ask the complainant to leave, if his/her behaviour poses an immediate threat to the staff's personal safety or damages their personal interests. In an emergency or if it is deemed necessary, the school should take appropriate and decisive action, such as reporting to the police or taking legal action.

(ii) Unreasonable demands

- ♦ If a complainant makes unreasonable demands which have an adverse impact on the school, e.g. interrupting its operation/services or other stakeholders are affected by the unreasonable behaviour of the complainant, the school may consider putting restrictions on the complainant's contacts with the school, including specifying the time, frequency, date, duration and modes of communication (for example, requiring the complainant to make an appointment before visiting the school, submit his/her views in writing, or contact only with the staff designated by the school). The school must notify the complainant in writing of such arrangements and handling procedures.
- ♦ If the complainant's behaviour improves, the school may consider whether the restrictions should be lifted. If the school decides to keep the restrictions, it should regularly review the conditions for imposing them.

(iii) Unreasonable persistent complaints

- ♦ Faced with these complaints, if the school has carefully examined the case and handled it properly under the prescribed investigation and appeal procedures, and sent a detailed and unbiased written explanation regarding the outcome to the complainant, the school may decide whether to restrict or stop contacts with the complainant, and cease handling the case altogether.
- ♦ To avoid any unrealistic expectations on the part of the complainant, the school should communicate to him/her in a firm manner that a final decision has been made regarding the case and that the decision is irreversible.
- ♦ In response to these complaints, the school may send a "Reply Card" to the complainant, referring him/her to the replies previously given, and reiterate that the school will neither respond to the same complaint nor contact him/her again. Please see Appendix VI for a sample "Reply Card".

Chapter VII Conclusion

Effective school-based mechanism

7.1 To ensure that public inquiries/complaints are properly handled, schools should establish a school-based complaint handling mechanism and procedures relevant to their own circumstances and the needs of stakeholders. It should be:

- ♦ Clear and unambiguous
- ♦ Open and transparent
- ♦ Concise and easy to follow
- ♦ Fair and just
- ♦ Able to protect confidentiality of information
- ♦ Under continuous review and improvement

7.2 An effective school-based complaint handling mechanism not only increases public confidence in school governance, but also prevents public opinions/inquiries from evolving into formal complaints or unnecessarily escalating to the EDB or other government departments/organisations.

Maintaining good communication

7.3 In addition to formulating an effective complaint handling mechanism, schools should continue to maintain a close partnership with parents and staff by enhancing communication with them. Members of the Parent-Teacher Association of the school may serve as a bridge of communication by helping to explain the school policies to parents, relieving their sentiments of dissatisfaction, and playing the role of mediator when necessary. To enhance the standards of the professional services they provide, schools should always assume an open attitude and listen to the views of their sponsoring bodies and stakeholders to identify room for improvement regarding their school-based inquiry/complaint handling mechanism and procedures.

Making continuous improvement

7.4 The EDB has published the Guidelines to make recommendations on the policies and procedures for handling complaints as well as to delineate the roles of various parties concerned. We believe this is the first step towards supporting schools in enhancing/establishing their own inquiry/complaint handling mechanism. We will continue to keep close contact with schools and stakeholders, listen to their views and improve our recommendations in order to help schools establish an effective framework for handling public complaints.

Examples of Complaints Relating to Daily Operation and Internal Affairs of Schools

Domain	Examples
Management and Organisation	• School accounts (e.g. accounting records) • Other charges (e.g. extra-curricular activities charges and registration fees) • School policies (e.g. system of reward and penalty, arrangements regarding students' suspension from school) • Standards of contractors' services (e.g. school bus services, supply of meal boxes) • Service contracts (e.g. tendering procedures) • School environment and hygiene (e.g. noise pollution, mosquitoes problems)
Learning and Teaching	• School-based curriculum (e.g. subject lesson time) • Selection of subjects and class allocation (e.g. arrangements for students' choice of subjects) • Homework (e.g. amount of homework , school-based assessment criteria) • Students assessment (e.g. assessment criteria) • Staff performance (e.g. behaviour/attitudes of teaching staff, job performance)
School Ethos and Student Support	• School ethos (e.g. uniform and other aspects of appearance) • Home-school cooperation (e.g. consultation mechanism, communication channels) • Student support (e.g. support for students with special educational needs) • Extra-curricular activities (e.g. arrangements for interest groups and other student activities)
Student Performance	• Students' overall performance (e.g. academic results, conduct) • Student discipline (e.g. foul and abusive language, smoking, fighting, bullying)

* Schools should handle complaints about daily operation and internal affairs in accordance with the Education Ordinance, Education Regulations, Codes of Aid, relevant circulars, guidelines and codes of practice listed in paragraph 1.1(i) of the Guidelines to ensure compliance with the respective requirements.
